PRESS RELEASE:

The Lake Chelan Education Association proudly announces the 2013 recipients of the LCEA Senior Scholarship. In consideration, the scholarship panel reviewed scholastic achievements, motivation to achieve future goals, leadership, positive interactions with fellow schoolmates, perseverance, financial need, extra curricular activities, and community involvement. This year's winners of the $500 scholarships are Marta Vegdahl-Crowell and Rebecca Glasspool.

Marta is the daughter of Rolf Vegdahl and Karen Crowell. Ms. Vegdahl-Crowell has maintained a 3.9 GPA while participating in Interact Club, Drama, Medical Club, and National Honor Society. Marta has also served on the Give Naked charity youth board, participated in the Lutheran church youth group, volunteered at the Holden Village retreat center, studied the classical violin, and was 1st runner up in the Miss Lake Chelan program in 2012. Ms. Vegdahl-Crowell will be attending Macalester College in Minnesota to pursue a degree in International Studies, and hopes to use her degree to work with aid organizations and help the disadvantaged.

Rebecca is the daughter of Chris and Lynne Glasspool. Ms. Glasspool has maintained a 3.2 GPA while participating in Medical Club, Five Star Club, Interact Club, Teens Against Tobacco Use, Future Business Leaders of America, volleyball and golf. In addition, Rebecca has volunteered with Med Club service activities, FBLA service activities, the city library, Earth Day, Heritage Heights and the community farm. Ms. Glasspool will be attending Shoreline Community College to study Business and Marketing.

The Lake Chelan Education Association congratulates Marta and Rebecca, and salutes all the seniors who have made a positive impact on Chelan High School and the Lake Chelan Valley.
